AMEND VACANCY TO CLOSE JOB #4 – HRD STUDENT TRAINEE (COMPUTER SPECIALIST)”.

STUDENT CAREER EXPERIENCE PROGRAM (SCEP)

The National Science Foundation, a Federal Government agency devoted to the advancement of scientific research and education, is seeking career minded college students for its Student Career Experience Program (SCEP). This Program provides an opportunity for students to gain work experience related to their academic major or career goals. Parallel and alternating work schedules are available. Pay is set based on the student's qualifications for the position and ranges from $8.15 to $17.98 per hour. Appointment is subject to written agreement with the educational institution. Consideration may be given to hiring SCEP students on a permanent basis after graduation.

(Job #3 – CPO) Student Trainee (Contracting)

Undergraduate and graduate degree students majoring in business, finance, accounting, management, law or closely related fields may apply. The SCEP student will work in a developmental capacity in the Division of Contracts, Policy and Oversight assisting in the planning, advising upon, and managing pre-award and post-award functions on assigned contracts. Assignments are to prepare the incumbent for more responsible and professional work in the field of contracts and acquisitions.

(Job #5 – CSE) Student Trainee (Computer Science)

Baccalaureate or graduate degree students in computer science, computer engineering or computer information systems may apply. Some experience or training with operating systems, programming and/or networking is desirable. Applicants must be able to communicate and work independently. Projects vary and may depend largely upon the candidates experience and abilities. Tasks will be in the areas of: systems management and network management and administration; product evaluation, installation, and training; development of procedures and processes for user operation web site development and maintenance.

LOCATION: Positions are located in the National Science Foundation in the the Office of Budget, Finance and Award Management, Contract and Policy Oversight; and Directorae for Computer and Information Science and Engineering, Arlington, VA.
